

Professional Ethics for Geologists

20 March 2025 @ 1100 MT

The American Institute of Professional Geologists (AIPG), in conjunction with the Global Geoscience Professionalism Group (GGPG), is pleased to present this ethics webinar, which will cover topics such as the definition of ethics, professional and business ethics for geoscientists, and geoethics.

Overview of the different ways that ethics are part of the profession of geology in both the business and professional areas

Present background information and a summary of ethics related to professional geoscience

Panel discussion with David Abbott, Jr., CPG-4570 and Jessica Cutter, MEM-3242

Questions from the Audience (not recorded)

The webinar will be available at no charge and for a small fee, Continuing Education Units (CEUs) will be available, if desired.

Register here: <https://aipg.org/events/EventDetails.aspx?id=1926744>