

As part of the Geoheritage Conference 2022, the GSSA invited allcomers to submit contributions to a photo competition. The 70 entries, from professionals and amateurs showcased the amazing variety of Geoheritage of South Africa. The winning photographs will be used as cover photos for the upcoming Geobulletins; the winners will also receive a copy of the book “Africa’s Top Geological Sites” and a cash prize sponsored by the GSSA.

The winners are:
